

Our Autorama 2010 display work days at Cliff's were very productive. We combined existing club items with stuff provided by Stuart and plenty of elbow grease from everyone who attended one or both.